Master Drilling Group - Disbursement Policy

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. The purpose of this policy is to outline the principles and procedures for reimbursing employees for business-related expenses incurred during the performance of their duties.
- 1.2. This ensures a standardised and transparent approach to cost recovery across the Master Drilling Group.
- 1.3. The policy is applicable to all employees within the Group and aims to support operational efficiency, financial control, and compliance with audit and tax requirements.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1. Disbursement: Reimbursement of a cost incurred by an employee for valid business purposes.
- 2.2. Employee: Any person employed by the Master Drilling Group, including permanent, fixed term, and temporary staff.
- 2.3. Business-Related Expense: An expense incurred while fulfilling work-related responsibilities, such as travel, accommodation, or approved purchases.
- 2.4. Supporting Documentation: Evidence substantiating the expense, such as receipts, tax invoices, or proof of payment.
- 2.5. Pre-Approval: Authorisation obtained from a line manager or relevant authority before incurring the expense.
- 2.6. Expense Claim Form: The standardised company form used to request reimbursement of business-related expenses.

5. COMPANY DISBURSEMENT POLICY

- 5.1. Employees may claim reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in the execution of their official duties, provided the expenses are:
 - 5.1.1. Necessary and directly related to business operations.
 - 5.1.2. Pre-approved by a line manager or relevant authority.
 - 5.1.3. Accompanied by complete supporting documentation.
- 5.2. All disbursement claims must be supported by original receipts, tax invoices, or proof of payment. Claims without valid documentation will not be processed.

Master Drilling Group - Disbursement Policy

- 5.3. All anticipated expenses must be pre-approved. This can be done through email confirmation or completion of an internal approval request, subject to the company's Delegation of Authority.
- 5.4. Employees must submit disbursement claims within 90 calendar days of the expense being incurred. Late submissions may be declined unless exceptional circumstances are justified and approved by a senior manager.
- 5.5. Submission and Approval Process.
 - 5.5.1. To Request Reimbursement:
 - a) Complete the official Disbursement Form.
 - b) Attach all required supporting documentation.
 - c) Obtain the necessary approvals.
 - d) Submit the full claim package to the Payroll Department.
- 5.6. Payment Timeline.
 - 5.6.1. Claims submitted on or before the 15th of the month will be paid at the end of the same month.
 - 5.6.2. Claims submitted after the 15th of the month will be paid at the end of the following month.
 - 5.6.3. Failure to comply with this policy may result in the rejection or delay of reimbursement claims.
 - 5.6.4. Repeated violations may be referred to Human Resources for further action.
